

1-minute recap

Pastor Kyle talked about doubt, but not in a way that we were used to hearing it; instead, he painted a picture where doubt paves the way for greater truth. He said that when we recognize illusions we've had about God and ourselves, we can dispel those myths and gain a broader and more realistic perspective on who God is and what that means for our real lives.

Is this how you think of doubt?

Dive in.

Think of a time when you experienced the doubt cycle Kyle mentioned (example below). When you look back on it now, what is your perspective?

LEARN

For though we live in the world, we do not wage war as the world does. The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have divine power to demolish strongholds. We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ. (2 Corinthians 10:3–5. NIV)

UNPACK.

1) What do you notice upon first reading this passage?

2) What do you think it means to wage war, demolish strongholds and arguments, and take thoughts captive?

3) What do you notice about the nature of Paul's language?

FOLLOW

We will practice taking thoughts captive.

What you will need.

- A way to take notes
- 3-minute timer

Start a three-minute timer.

What is causing you fear or doubt in your current relationship with God or others?

What do you know to be true even if you struggle to believe it right now?

Ask someone to pray over that area of your life.
